

GOODSTONE

Inn & Restaurant

For the comfort of all our guests at The Goodstone Inn we kindly ask that you review and agree to the following guidelines:

- A non-refundable pet fee of $150.00 per accommodation for suites and $250.00 per accommodation for cottages will be added to your account.
- Dogs are limited to private accommodations with no shared spaces, including ground-level suites in the Carriage House and the Bull Barn.
- Pets are not permitted to stay in the Hayloft Room, the Dutch Cottage, the Spring House, or the Manor House.
- An entire cottage must be reserved by the same party in order to have a dog in the house.
- Dogs may not be left unattended in rooms. The dog must be crated if left unattended in the room.
- Dogs are not permitted in public spaces including restaurants/ food and beverage or pool areas. Assistance or Service dogs are always exempt from these restrictions.
- We expect that your dog is fully trained and ask that you keep him/her on a leash at all times.
- Guests will dispose of all dog waste while on the property.
- The Goodstone Inn reserves the right to refuse service to any animal, including asking that a disruptive or aggressive dog be removed from the property.
- If there is a cause for concern management reserves the right to enter your room.
- Pets are not permitted on any furniture. This is the responsibility of the owners or caregivers.
- Guests are responsible for any damage to property resulting from the presence of an animal in the room. (Please be aware that there are many valuable antiques and custom upholstery fabrics in each room).
- Guests will also be held accountable for any complaints resulting in financial loss to the Inn. Please be mindful of any excessive noise to ensure that other guests are not inconvenienced while in your own room or when passing by common areas.
- If extra cleaning is required, an appropriate fee will be added to the bill, even if it is discovered after your actual departure from the Inn. Please notify management of any dog 'accidents' immediately and request special cleaning efforts.
- The Goodstone reserves the right to inspect the room(s) with Guests present prior to check-out.
- Dogs must have all recommended vaccinations currently up-to-date, and if requested must provide current records from a licensed veterinarian.
- The Goodstone Inn is not liable for any dog injuries sustained on the property.

All dogs must be registered at the front desk, and owners must sign the Pet Policy Agreement Form at the time of check-in (unless the form has been signed and submitted prior to arrival).
